

GLECS INTERNATIONAL: Mzuzu's leading business college

MSCE examinations are out. For those who have passed, it is time to decide your professional destiny. There is no time to waste as time has never been a luxury to a serious mind. Glecs International College of Business Management is registering students for the January – June Semester at its compass in Matrutchaya Building, Upper Floor near ShareWorld Open University offices in Mzuzu.

Or 0111 935 455.

Be a proud entrepreneur, marketer, human resource manager and accountant. Enroll now with Glecs International College of Management Sciences. Your future is serious business. Be part of success, be part of the family. Glecs International, building professionals for business growth, yesterday, through the present to the infinite future.

Glecs International offers ABE, PAEC, ACCA and CIMA programmes in its quest to produce successful managers in business, human resource, marketing, accounting and hospitality management.

Its flexible class sessions are designed to meet the demanding itinerary for the working class and those doing businesses. To this end, Glecs offers lesson on full time, weekend and evening sessions for everyone's convenience.

Driven by its vision of building excellent academic professionals for business growth, Glecs International has become a haven for serious minds that are planning big for their future. Furthermore, its fees structure is the friendliest in town.

Led by a learned and successful manager Mr Alex Malanga as the college's principal, the school is well known for its high pass rates in all examinations. It is thus not surprising that most successful companies are sending their managers to the college for upgrading.

For more information, visit the college compass or call the director on 0999 600 613 Or 0888 521 177

